ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Voters of Sedgewick County.

I am a candidate for the office of county superintendent, subject to the decision of the people at the polls. Men have been given lucrative offices in the service of the county. If this be the criterion for office, I left father and brothers on the field of battle who fell in defense of the Union, and because of their irreparable loss, my whole life aspirations and ambitions were forever disabled, even an education was obtained by a terrible struggle against fearful odds. The field of occupation for women is limited, though the harvesters are many. I respectfully ask your support on the ground of merit alone.

Mrs. M. E. LEASE.

To the Editor of the Eagle:

Please announce G. W. Steenrod as a candidate for Representative of the Sixth District, subject to the decision of the people at the polls.

LECTURE—THEATRE—COMPANY.

Under the Management of

MR. H. A. WILBUR.

Recommended and arranged by

A. C. CRABBS, of Toledo, Ohio, is in the city on business.

M. K. Kottelman arrived in the city from Harper.

A mass meeting of laboring men will be held at G. A. R. hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Prof. Fischer has closed the first term of his dancing school and will on next Tuesday begin the second.

Gabel Bros. have opened a restaurant in the building formerly occupied by the Derby Implement company.

S. Zorn and Charles T. Ballard, two young men from Louisville, Ky., were among the arrivals in the city yesterday.

Miss Minnie E. McLaughlin, of the Leslie Concert Company, spent yesterday with her friend Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson.

L. M. Crawford of Toledo, manager of the Opera House, arrived in this city last evening and is stopping at the Manhattan.

It is recommended that candidates and politicians attend the G. A. R. hall tonight. Straws will show how the wind is blowing.

Mr. Henry M. Hess, of Leek Haven, Pa., arrived in the city yesterday morning. He is on a western tour and will remain in the city some days.

Moonlight's failure in favor of whisky is an unfortunate thing for the Democratic party, whether that party endorses Moonlight's position or not.

H. H. Marley, General Passenger Agent of the Michigan Central, and Joseph H. Lyons, of the Missouri Pacific, came down from Kansas City to spend yesterday in the metropolis.

Dr. McLean, of Philadelphia, son of Judge McLean of this city, is paying his father a visit. Dr. McLean and Judge Lauck leave tomorrow for a piscatorial venture on the Walnut.

A $100,000

Capital Stock is the Power Behind the Throne for the Latest Enterprise in Wichita.

The Wichita Cracker Company Increases Its Capacity in Order to Supply the Demand for Its Goods.

It seems that each day brings to the surface some new enterprise of dimensions in the metropolis of the southwest or some establishment receives additional stock in order to increase capacity to accommodate the increase of orders. But two days ago the readers of the Eagle received particulars of an ice manufactory commanding $50,000 that is set down as one of the certain things for the city. Yesterday the news hunter was introduced to a company that has been formed in the city with a stock of $100,000.

Reference was made a few days ago in these columns concerning the Wichita Cracker company, stating that they had decided to change location and increase their capacity. The whole affair was not ripe for publication at that time and hence it was allowed to remain sub rosa.

The stock of the company has been increased to $100,000 and the following gentlemen constitute the new company, J. O. Davidson, C. R. Miller, W. W. Dill, C. D. Phillips and G. Gehring. The stock is about equally divided among the members of the company. The officials have not as yet been chosen, but the stockholders will serve as directors.

The company has secured a lot on Fourth avenue between First street and Douglas avenue with a front of fifty feet and one hundred and forty feet deep. A three-story brick building with a front of fifty feet and one hundred and twenty-five feet deep will be erected. Work will commence on it in the near future and the contract specifies that it will be completed by the middle of December next. The foundation and walls will be of sufficient strength to allow two more stories to be added whenever they are desired.

The company will occupy its present quarters until the first of January. This will allow them a chance at the holiday trade. Before the factory is shut down preparatory to a removal things will be in such a condition that work will be suspended but a few days, which will give the company a chance to fill orders at a reasonable time. The ovens in the new factory will be built before a change is commenced and everything made ready in order to start at once.

The machinery in the present factory is in every particular of the latest design and the best used. To this will be added still another. The new factory will have double the capacity of the present one. The additional room will assist greatly in increasing the output. The daily consumption of flour will be between fifty and sixty barrels.

The capacity of the confectionery department will be increased in keeping with the cracker department. It will require from ten to twenty-five barrels of sugar per day. In both branches of the establishment there will be an increase in the variety of goods and an effort made to supply the market with everything that will be called for in their line. The company propose to make it the model house of the kind in the state in every particular. The quality of the goods made by the present factory is such that they have found a sale in every town in southwestern Kansas. Large orders are filled for the Territory, Colorado and New Mexico. When the new railroad is completed through the Territory another section will be opened up, which can easily be commanded by the company. The development of the northwest increases the demand for their goods.

The success and with by the old company since it commenced business in the city near two years ago, has been highly gratifying to all who were concerned. The proprietors in looking for a location prior to the time they decided to come to this city, were offered inducements of no mean proportions by several towns in this and other states, but on examining Wichita decided to come here without asking bounties. Their success was such that it was no difficult task to increase the capital stock when the demand for goods was such that an increase in capacity was desirable. The field for such an extensive enterprise is such that hesitation on the part of those who constitute the company was not in order.

The manufactory will give constant employment to fifty hands, twenty of which are employed in the confectionary department. This will be the force when the manufactory starts, but will be increased as the business develops. The room will be sufficient to work a force of twenty-five hands, and if business increases as fast in the future as it has in the last year, the day is not far distant when all the room will be occupied.

ACCIDENTS.

Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock the five-year-old child of Dr. Knicker, who lives on English street between Emporia and Fourth was playing in front of the house with several other children. The child thoughtlessly ran into the street as a lumber wagon was being rapidly driven past, and was knocked down by the horses, the wheels passing over the left leg at the knee and the right at the ankle. The driver heartlessly drove on in spite of the screams of pain from the injured child and the cries for assistance from the woman who ran to help the little one.

The sufferer was carried into the house and everything possible done to alleviate the pain.

Mrs. Conway, residing on North Emporia avenue, opposite the high school, had the misfortune to have her arm fractured yesterday forenoon.

A plumber employed in the Throckmorton and Davidson building on North Topeka was knocked senseless about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a gas explosion.

TROUBLE IN THE KITCHEN.

The guests who had an early breakfast at the Tremont yesterday morning, were disappointed in something that did not appear upon the bill of fare. Albeit, the colored waiter, made an attack upon Will, a white waiter, and got in several good blows. When Will retaliated the dishwasher took the part of his colored brother, but was settled by a plate of hot food striking him squarely in the face. By this time the fight had become brisk and general, plates flew in profusion, roasts and fries wandered aimlessly through the kitchen, and the waiter girls screamed and fainted. Just then the general proprietor appeared upon the scene of war, put an end to the skirmish and adjusted matters by making a material change in the help of the culinary department of that hotel.

THE GREAT FOOT RACE.

At last arrangements have been consummated whereby two of the most noted runners in the United States will on the fifth of next month compete in this city for $500 a side.

The race will be one of the most important events in the amusement annals of Wichita and will no doubt attract state if not national interest.

The articles of agreement for the race, which were completed yesterday, are as follows:

We the undersigned agree to run a foot race, distance one hundred and fifty yards, for the sum of twenty five hundred dollars a side now deposited in the hands of R. L. Walker, who is to be final stakeholder, one thousand dollars a side to be deposited October 25, 1886, by twelve o'clock noon November 5, 1886. Start to be by mutual consent. If not off in thirty minutes to go by report of pistol in the hands of some man selected by referee. Winner of race to take all gate money and pay all advertising and for the use of grounds. Either party failing to comply with the above agreement to forfeit all money in the hands of R. L. Walker, the final stakeholder. First man out takes all stakes, bets and gate money—race, play or pay, good day and track. Judges and referee to be chosen day of race. Referee's decision to be final. If either runner is sick day of race we have mutually agreed to postpone the race two weeks. After that time the man failing to come to the mark forfeits all money in the hands of R. L. Walker, which is $2,500 a side.

Gibson's backers, Messrs. Frank S. Burt and George A. English, have at their command a man who they will put against any man in the United States for a seventy-five yard race for any amount between one and five thousand dollars.

GRAND MASTER OF THE STATE.

As was mentioned yesterday morning, J. T. McMillan, of this city, is now the grand master of the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., of the state of Kansas. His election was well nigh unanimous, and the dignity was most worthily conferred. The cause and the principles of the great and noble brotherhood, which is a charitable and beneficiary order, is probably as numerically strong as any other known to civilization, he has most sincerely at heart. J. T. McMillan is an Old Fellow in the broadest and deepest sense, and the interests of the order in Kansas will be most faithfully fostered and guarded by him as its supreme head. His many friends in this city are proud of the distinctive honor conferred upon him, and upon his return home yesterday morning he was almost overwhelmed with hearty congratulations. He has been a member of the order for twenty-three years, having been an initiate of Old Cincinnati, Ohio, lodge No. 2, whose members will no doubt heart with pleasure their worthy brother's elevation. He has been a very active and prominent member of Wichita lodge No. 93 for twelve years, having passed all the chairs. His home lodge, of course, feel highly gratified over the action of the grand lodge.

DOVES ON THE WING.

Mr. John O. Zorn, of Wheeling, W. Va., arrived in the city yesterday morning and is stopping at the Occidental. He brought with him two young pigeons that belong to Mr. Michael McManis of his city, and will turn them loose this morning from the top of the Occidental hotel between eight and nine o'clock, for the purpose of seeing if they will be able to return home. The owner has made several experiments with them during the last summer and they always reached home in good time. He first took them to Pittsburg, Pa., a distance of seventy-five miles, and in about an hour from the time they were set at liberty they were home. He made several similar experiments keeping the distance within two hundred miles. Finally he was induced to send them to Baltimore, a distance of four hundred miles, and in four hours after the cage door was thrown open, they were home. He sends them here feeling confident that they will return at the rate of a hundred miles an hour.

Mr. Zorn visited this city last February, and being able to tell a growing city what he saw, he has invested largely in real estate, and as a result has made handsome money. His visits here enable him to see what the business world is doing.

THAT HOG PACKING.

It is very evident that there is some misapprehension touching a proposition from a pork packing establishment of Kansas City, or otherwise the Beacon has gone out of its way in attempting to reflect on somebody's manhood. But for the fact that the writer of this was unexpectedly kept out of town all day Monday on the most important business possible, so far as the city is concerned, notices would have been printed, the Committee of Twenty notified and a respectful answer authoritatively made to the gentlemen making the proposition. After conferring with Col. Stewart as to what was best to do and in pursuance of a perfectly satisfactory understanding, the editor of this paper hunted up the president of the committee of twenty, took him to see the secretary, and it was agreed that a meeting should be called for Monday night. The only mistake, and it was not intentional, was that no agreement was had as to who should send out the calls. Hereafter we have done that, and would have done so again, or seen that it was done, had we been in the city. Colonel Lewis came down and opened his bank office expecting the members to appear. It is simply a failure for the want of a definite understanding, and the Beacon's reflections are therefore out of order. For our own part we felt more sorrow on account of Colonel Stewart's account than we did on account of the loss of any supposed chance of a consummation of a pork packing house deal involving so little yet so much.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday morning, Joe Barlow, John Mooney, John Durs and C. Johnson, were brought up charged with being drunk, each was fined $5 and costs. Johnson lacked the necessary amount and had to be committed.

In the afternoon the case of J. J. Arnold came up for consideration. Pat McKinley, Pat Hickey and Mike Kanan, who had attempted to break into his room were brought into court. They pleaded not guilty to disturbing the peace and were represented by G. W. C. Jones. The judge after carefully weighing all the evidence fined McKinley, Hickey and Kanan $5 each for disturbing the peace.

CAMP MEETING.

The sermon at the camp meeting of last night was delivered by Elder J. H. Cook, of Fort Scott, upon the two covenants, from the text Exodus 19:15. (Now therefore if you will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people, for all the earth is mine.)

The Elder here remarked it is needful to note, what is meant by the word covenant. Webster thus defines it:

1. A mutual consent or agreement of two or more persons to do or forbear some act.
2. The writing which contains the agreement.

Two ideas are thus particularized: First, an agreement between parties; second, the writing containing terms of the agreement.

Let us now note the steps by which God and Israel entered into covenant. First, at the time verse 1 was the third month when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt; second, God called Moses up to the Mt. Siner and makes the proposition commanding Moses to take it and lay it before Israel.

(2) Verse 2, Moses does as commanded.

(3) Verse 3, "All the people answered together and said all that the Lord hath spoken we will do."

(4) Verse 4, Moses returned their words to the Lord.

(5) Verses 10-25, God charges concerning the preparation to hear his voice.

(6) Chapter 24:1-7, God utters the ten commandments; his covenant. Deut. 4:1 and 5:2, which they had covenanted to obey.

(7) The people answered by the Divine power desire Moses to hear God and to repeat to them, who accords to their request.

(8) Chapter 21, 22 and 23 are spoken to Moses alone.

(9) Now God proceeds to confirm the covenant.

(10) He now sends Moses to the people again, Ex. 24:1-2, to see if they will now stand to their part of the covenant.

(11) Moses goes down and tells the people all God's words to him. Verse 3.

Now the people have a chance to retract and refuse to close the covenant.

Observe their answer, all with one voice, "All the words which the Lord hath said will we do."

We might suppose this final, but not so the Lord. It must be firmly ratified and put in writing, the entire covenant or agreement.

Moses now reads what he has written, calls it the covenant God had made with them containing all these words.

Now Israel has one more final opportunity to renege from their covenant and refusing to enter into so solemn an obligation.

(12) And he said, all that the Lord hath said will we do.

Thus the people close their part of the covenant. God's most solemn act of ratification quickly follows.

Thus we have the first covenant and can see it consists of a solemn contract or agreement between God and Israel.

Now God tells Moses to "Come up to me in the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone and a law, and commandments which I have written."

Moses goes up into the mount and remains forty days, during which time Israel falls into idolatry, and at the expiration of that time Moses comes down and seeing their sin, breaks the tables to show them they have already broken the covenant.

After a season of reproof and Israel's repentance, another forty days is consumed in a second writing of the law of God. Moses at last returns and places the law in the ark, previously prepared as its receptacle, at which time nearly or quite three months had elapsed since the ratifying of the first, or old covenant, before they had seen a copy of the ten commandments. Hence the ten commandments are not and cannot be the old covenant.

Now, Paul, in speaking of this matter in Gal. 3:15, says: "Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed no man shall annul it or abrogate it." Now to have added the ten commandments to this solemnly confirmed covenant would have been an offense no less grave than that of an attempt to break the will of a man now three months deceased.

Dow Daniel, 2:27, says of Christ that he would confirm the new covenant with his disciples one week, and in the midst of the week to cut off their sins. Thus he did first his own obedience as indicated in Ps. 41:8. Second by His teachings, Mat. 5:17, "Think not I am come to destroy the law or the prophets, I am not come to destroy but to fulfill." Ex. 19:17, "It shall enter into life keep the commandments."

Having spent his life in thus laying down the principles entering with the new covenant, he dies, thus closing it up, and sealing it with his blood.

Now it is completely nothing more can enter into it or be taken away. Matt. 23:23, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, are his solemn parting words after his resurrection.

Now no change could possibly be made in the new Covenant, and we find the disciples still keeping the Sabbath of the commandment, Luke 23:56. To have changed in the observance of the Sabbath after the new Covenant was thus sealed would be one more to break the will of the deceased, and in this case it would be not man's covenant, but that of his "only begotten Son of God."

THE LADIES' RELIEF CORPS.

The Ladies' Relief Corps have made arrangements for two lectures in the interest of the corps. Mesdames Heizerman, Woodcock and Stoner have the matter in hand. One of the lectures is by H. C. St. Clair, ex-state senator, of Belle Plaine, whose subject will be a trip to the Pacific coast. The other lecture will be delivered by Col. J. W. Faigden, of Emporia. Outside of the value of these lectures, over and above them, and all that these men may be able to tell us, is the cause first which these ladies represent, and secondly the necessity of encouraging and sustaining that benevolent organization. The time and place will be duly announced for both of these entertainments.

THE NEW ICE COMPANY.

The charter of the Wichita Ice company, which has been exhibited to us, shows that a mistake has been made as to two or three names. The paid up capital stock is $50,000 and the machinery is to produce thirty tons per day. The company consists of the following named gentlemen: N. A. English, J. A. Sohn, J. T. McMillan, W. M. Johnson, Geo. W. Gellbach, Geo. M. Callison. The necessary buildings will be erected immediately, and it is expected that the machinery will all be in place by January.

IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Marriage license was yesterday issued to T. E. Drake, 35 years of age, and Mollie R. Young, 16 years of age. Both of Kitchi township.

Mr. Smith Taylor, of the live firm of Barnard & Taylor, of Caldwell, paid the Eagle office a pleasant call yesterday.

Will Collins, who has been lying sick for some time at the Tremont house, has become so bad that it is thought necessary to telegraph for his mother in Illinois.

The Enterprise presents itself to our readers this morning in a new advertisement, announcing a list of extra bargains, which will be read with a good deal of interest. Read it carefully.

P. M. Jenks, a prominent citizen of Alta, Iowa, is in the city the guest of Dr. St. John. Mr. Jenks thinks Wichita a wonderful city and will soon move his family here.

Dr. B. A. Gayton returned to Wichita yesterday from Sioux City, Iowa, where he has been for some time detained in arranging the affairs of Dr. B. A. Gayton, Jr., lately deceased.

J. W. Leighton, wife and child of Malone, N. Y., arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Leighton is a prominent and wealthy dry goods merchant, and is now making a prospecting tour through the state.

Walter and Eli Hoffman and Dr. McAdams went down the river duck hunting yesterday. They had a complete hunters outfit, and when they return there will be no sport for those who may come after them.

"Rats." Silas Robinson's new penny paper, will appear again to-day. The two first issues seem to have been a great success. Rats contains heaps of genuine and innocent fun, and is sold everywhere, on the streets, on the cars, etc.

Elder S. F. Boggess and wife, of South Haven, who have been visiting the family of J. K. Turner during and since the late convention of the Christian church, returned home today accompanied by Miss Zella Turner, who expects to spend a few weeks in that vicinity.

Mrs. Lulu Jackson, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, arrived in the city yesterday to remain a few days the guest of Rev. Payne. Mrs. Jackson is fascinated with the city, and expects that her husband, who is a prominent farmer of Kentucky, will sell his interests there and remove to Seligwick county.

Mr. Adams, western manager of the Schuyler Electric company, and the employees of the station in this city, made Mr. E. J. Welsh, superintendent of instruction, a handsome present last evening before he boarded the train for an eastern visit. The gift seemed to be a very appropriate one.

Michael W. Koonham, ex-convict, well known ruler of East Douglas Avenue, left for an eastern trip on the Fr. Scott, real yesterday morning. After rustication for a while among the hills he will return to Wichita on horseback, by which means he hopes to improve his health. His return will be as early as possible, though it may be later than he at first anticipated.

In response to a call from headquarters the ladies of the W. C. T. U., with all others who feel interested in our work, are earnestly requested to meet at 4 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, October 16, at the Kindergarten room on Second Street between Lawrence and Topeka avenues. By order of the union.

M. A. FELLOWS.

Oct. 14, 1886.

Mr. A. S. Hart, advertising and sales agent of Marburg Bros' Seat of North Carolina Tobacco Works, is in the city and doing immense advertising work upon their popular brand of "Pung Cat" smoking tobacco. He is sampling this section extensively and also benefiting the retail trade with a very liberal gift.

Yesterday we were called upon by G. C. Hunn of Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, who has been looking over the West with a view to location and investments. Mr. H. says he first struck southwestern Missouri and western Arkansas, but a week or two of that country satisfied him. He is entirely satisfied with the great Arkansas valley and its metropolis.

DEED.

The child of L. J. Alexander died Thursday evening and was buried yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Payne of the Christian church conducting the services.

BEFORE THE TEACHERS.

E. B. Baldwin, of Oswego, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 delivered a highly interesting and instructive lecture at the high school before the city teachers upon the educational interests of Germany. He drew his material from a year's trip made on foot and bicycle through the German Empire, and other continental states, and the British Isles. His lecture was highly appreciated and a vote of thanks tendered him by the teachers.

DISTRICT COURT.

After court convened yesterday morning the verdict in the Stryker case was read. The jury had been out all night, and at last about 6 o'clock
